

Overview

Port Jobs works to increase access to living wage jobs and foster a more vibrant and equitable economy for residents of and businesses in Seattle and King County.

A not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization, we expand opportunities and build success with responsive research, powerful partnerships, and practical programs that make good jobs easier to get and good employees easier to find, primarily in the port-related economy.

Port Jobs incubates new program ideas, operates some programs in-house, and funds other programs operated by partner organizations. Together with our partners, we provide a wide array of services to job-seekers, employers and our community, including:

- Access to building and construction trades apprenticeships.
- Centralized airport employment services for job-seekers and employers.
- Workplace-based college classes.
- Money management skills training for new apprentices.
- Research that responds to and serves community needs as we explore new and emerging trends in areas such as logistics and international trade and apprenticeship.
