PORT JOBS SERVICES BEING PROVIDED DURING COVID-19 PANDEMIC

COVID-19 has had a huge impact on jobs at Sea-Tac Airport. Port Jobs provided real-time information and resources for job seekers and laid-off airport employees, including:

- Listing job openings both at Sea-Tac Airport and outside of the airport
- Providing career navigation services
- Providing hygiene packs with $100 worth of grooming and hygiene products to clients eligible for Basic Food Assistance
- Co-hosting Health Insurance Options webinars with King County Public Health for those losing their health insurance benefits
- Providing information on support-net resources such as training opportunities, unemployment, healthcare resources, food and energy assistance, low-cost internet and free COVID testing
- Offering our first live, online Airport University class - Career Success Skills - focusing on job search skills
- Helping current and laid-off airport employees go to college through the Alaska Airlines-Airport University Scholarship Program
